

THE TIMES- VIRGINIAN

VOL. XLIII—NO. 9

APOMATTOX, VIRGINIA, THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 28, 1929

ESTABLISHED 1882

Improved Uniform International Sunday School Lesson

(By REV. P. H. FLETCHER, D.D., Dean Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)
1215, Western Boulevard, Chicago.

Lesson for March 3

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

LESSON TEXT—Eph. 1:1, 22:14-16.

1. What is it.

It is the body of redeemed men and women, called out of the world, regenerated and united to Jesus Christ as head, and to each other by the Holy Spirit.

2. It was unknown in the Old Testament.

It was revealed in the New Testament.

3. It was revealed in the New Testament.

4. It was revealed in the New Testament.

5. It was revealed in the New Testament.

6. It was revealed in the New Testament.

7. It was revealed in the New Testament.

8. It was revealed in the New Testament.

9. It was revealed in the New Testament.

10. It was revealed in the New Testament.

11. It was revealed in the New Testament.

12. It was revealed in the New Testament.

13. It was revealed in the New Testament.

14. It was revealed in the New Testament.

15. It was revealed in the New Testament.

16. It was revealed in the New Testament.

17. It was revealed in the New Testament.

18. It was revealed in the New Testament.

19. It was revealed in the New Testament.

20. It was revealed in the New Testament.

21. It was revealed in the New Testament.

22. It was revealed in the New Testament.

23. It was revealed in the New Testament.

24. It was revealed in the New Testament.

25. It was revealed in the New Testament.

26. It was revealed in the New Testament.

27. It was revealed in the New Testament.

28. It was revealed in the New Testament.

29. It was revealed in the New Testament.

30. It was revealed in the New Testament.

31. It was revealed in the New Testament.

32. It was revealed in the New Testament.

33. It was revealed in the New Testament.

34. It was revealed in the New Testament.

35. It was revealed in the New Testament.

36. It was revealed in the New Testament.

37. It was revealed in the New Testament.

38. It was revealed in the New Testament.

39. It was revealed in the New Testament.

40. It was revealed in the New Testament.

41. It was revealed in the New Testament.

42. It was revealed in the New Testament.

43. It was revealed in the New Testament.

44. It was revealed in the New Testament.

45. It was revealed in the New Testament.

46. It was revealed in the New Testament.

47. It was revealed in the New Testament.

48. It was revealed in the New Testament.

49. It was revealed in the New Testament.

50. It was revealed in the New Testament.

51. It was revealed in the New Testament.

52. It was revealed in the New Testament.

53. It was revealed in the New Testament.

54. It was revealed in the New Testament.

55. It was revealed in the New Testament.

56. It was revealed in the New Testament.

57. It was revealed in the New Testament.

58. It was revealed in the New Testament.

59. It was revealed in the New Testament.

60. It was revealed in the New Testament.

61. It was revealed in the New Testament.

62. It was revealed in the New Testament.

63. It was revealed in the New Testament.

64. It was revealed in the New Testament.

65. It was revealed in the New Testament.

66. It was revealed in the New Testament.

67. It was revealed in the New Testament.

68. It was revealed in the New Testament.

69. It was revealed in the New Testament.

70. It was revealed in the New Testament.

71. It was revealed in the New Testament.

72. It was revealed in the New Testament.

ALONG DAVID CREEK

Farmer's all seem to be busy burning grape, from the smoke. Hope they get through before March wind begins to blow. The roads have gotten so bad that the mail man had to drive horse and buggy, looks like olden times, and school children are going in wagons instead of cars, after all the horse is the best way, but we must admit the road has been better from

Towerville to Bent Creek this winter than last.

We are glad to hear that

Mrs. John Booker is out after a hard spell of flu.

Mr. J. H. Thornhill is said to be very feeble, hope he is not taking the flu.

Mrs. George Turner and family have our deepest sympathy in the loss of their husband, father and uncle. Only

8 days difference in the two brothers deaths.

Mrs. W. W. Thornhill, who has been very ill is better.

Mrs. Sara Naramore, who is making her home with her nephew, Mr. W. W. Thornhill, is suffering from a fall she had last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Moore's

baby is better.

Mr. W. A. Wells and son

left today for Lynchburg with a truck load of tobacco.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Childers received a letter saying their daughter, Miss Reva Childers,

and Mr. Edward Martin, both of Richmond, were united in marriage February 9. Miss

Reva is well known here and her many friends wish her a long and happy married life.

Miss Mary Harris and Mr.

Zan Walton and Miss Ruth

Harris and Mr. Dallie Walton are married.

Mr. W. A. Wells has a 14 months old Guernsey male for sale, he is entitled to registration.

EVERGREEN

Roads are yet bad, and it is almost impossible to get to the Hinburg road at present over the new road.

Mrs. Sallie Cawthon is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Lee.

Her many friends are glad to see her at Evergreen again.

Mrs. Hunter Glenn is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edna Goering, at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Rev. and Mrs. Chocklett are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Z.

E. Cheatham.

Mrs. O. C. Paulett has as her guests Mr. M. L. Southall and daughter, Ernestine.

Mrs. C. J. Paulett spent the week-end with her home people.

Miss Ernestine Southall visited friends in Pamplin this week.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Bettie Crallo.

The B. Y. P. U. will begin their study course at Baptist

PASTOR TAKES POST ON "LONELIEST ISLE"

Dauntless Padre Sees Rafts as Worst Problem.

Southampton, England.—An adventurous clergyman, Rev. Augustus Partridge, has sailed from here for his new station in "the world's loneliest

island," Tristan da Cunha.

The dauntless padre—a bachelor—already has suffered the perils and hardships of frontier posts in distant

South Africa and South American fields.

With his Bible and "sea pocket"

as his only companions, he is sailing away from the world's loneliest

island, Tristan da Cunha.

It was just recently that he returned from his post in the island of Tristan da Cunha where he had been for the last three years.

He was a man of broad vision and rare business ability. He spent

one-fourth of his life in public service and yet left behind him a record

of business achievement and a fortune that entitles him to be called

one of the world's greatest business

men. But when he heard that the chaplain at Tristan da Cunha was

sick and must be relieved he volunteered at once for the unenvied task.

Serves in Africa.

After serving during the war in the

British Red Cross, Mr. Partridge

served the Anglican ministry and soon

responded to the call for foreign

service in the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. He went out to

South Africa and in the following

years he served in the following

missions:—Natal, Zululand, and

the Transvaal. He was a man of

wide vision and rare business

ability. He was a man of broad

vision and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

PAINTS WASHINGTON FIRST MILLIONAIRE

Lawyer Describes Business Genius of General.

New York.—The first American millionaire was George Washington, according to Eugene L. Prussing, Los Angeles lawyer, formerly of Chicago,

who has just completed thirteen years of research into Washington's career as a business man. Summing up the results of his study in the American Magazine, Mr. Prussing says:

"It is customary to think of Washington as soldier and statesman. He was also a man of business, successful farmer, holder of transportation licenses, engineer, pioneer and promoter. He was a man of broad commercial vision and rare business ability. He spent

one-fourth of his life in public

service and yet left behind him a record

of business achievement and a for-

tune that entitles him to be called

one of the world's greatest business

men. But when he heard that the

chaplain at Tristan da Cunha was

sick and must be relieved he volunteered at once for the unenvied task.

Serves in Africa.

After serving during the war in the

British Red Cross, Mr. Partridge

served the Anglican ministry and soon

responded to the call for foreign

service in the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. He went out to

South Africa and in the following

years he served in the following

missions:—Natal, Zululand, and

the Transvaal. He was a man of

wide vision and rare business

ability. He was a man of broad

vision and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision

and rare business ability.

He was a man of broad vision